Born in 1959 in Belgrade, Serbia
Lives and works in Belgrade, Serbia

Born in Belgrade in 1959. The first time she made a public appearance was in the 1986 autumn fashion show with her one-off hand-made women's underwear collection. After a great success she opened the first fashion atelier of its kind in Belgrade. In 1989 she opened the second atelier for the production of women's wear. She created the fashion label "ISIDORA S".

In 1992 under the same name she opened a boutique in a Milanese mall. In the period up till 1992 she had four fashion shows. In the period 1992-2000 she withdrew from public life expressing her political position of disagreement with the tyranny and dictatorship in the ex-Yugoslavia. In October 2000 some democratic reforms arrived in Yugoslavia. In the spring 2001 she returned to the fashion world with the collection "REMINISCENCE" that was displayed in the National Museum.

The collection "ECLECTIC" that was displayed in Belgrade in spring 2003 is her eighth independent fashion show.
